

Collingwood All Stars Representative Commitment – Player

If you are selected in an All Stars representative team, we ask that you carefully consider what you signing up for.

Grow as a team

Succeeding in representative basketball requires commitment to your team and the Collingwood All Stars. This includes:

- being available for the full season, which runs from October to September. If you have holiday plans please let us know in advance, leaving unannounced may effect your position in the team.
- attending all training and games each week (even when injured).
- being at games at the time required by your Coach. Our recommendation is 45 minutes before the game to allow adequate time to warm up and avoid any potential travel issues.
- Understanding that teams will be selected on the following criteria: merit; work ethic, team balance, prior season training attendance (if applicable), coachability and attitude.

Players will be given an opportunity to play within a game, however, court time is not even and will be granted based on training attendance, coachability and merit. Players are not entitled to court time, court time is earned.

Make it happen

Getting a team on the court involves considerable organisation. Parents, coaches, team managers and the Collingwood All Star staff work hard to enable you to play each week.

A player or parent must communicate with the Team Manager / Coach should they not be able to make a training session or game. This communication must occur as early as possible, not at the time or after the fact.

You must also;

- follow the instructions of your Coach.
- acknowledge communications and always be on time and at the pick up point if being driven to a game or training.
- pay the weekly team sheet fees
- speak to the Team manager or Club representative if you need help or have any concerns.

Develop as a player and person

By accepting a position on a Rep team you are committing to working hard to improve as both a player and a person, including;

- trying your hardest at all team activities
- respecting yourself and your Coaches, Team Manager, team mates, parents and referees.

Respect the Club and League rules

You are letting your team down if you are not allowed to play or points are lost for not following the rules of the Club, the VJBL or Basketball Victoria. Always remember to;

- Wear your Collingwood reversible training singlet to all training sessions. If the singlet is in the wash or lost, bring a light and dark training top.
- Wear your Collingwood branded clothing & uniform to games, and during warm up.
- Accept the referees' decisions.
- Comply with the Collingwood Basketball Association Code of Conduct www.collingwoodbasketball.com.au/code of conduct.pdf

I understand the information outlined above states the level of commitment required to ensure I contribute positively to the success of our team, develop as a player and have fun.
