

COLLINGWOOD BASKETBALL ASSOCIATION

BIG V HEAD COACHING POSITIONS

About the Collingwood Basketball Association

Collingwood Basketball Association (CBA) exists to celebrate and support our community through our love and passion for basketball. We strive to provide an equal and equitable opportunity for all our players, staff and members to allow for an inclusive and safe environment for all to flourish in.

Our vision is to be a welcoming and community centred basketball association located in Melbourne's inner-north for families and individuals who love and want to get involved in the sport.

Big V Head Coach

POSITION DESCRIPTION

The purpose of Big V at Collingwood Basketball Association (CBA) is to compete at a high standard of senior basketball, while building a pathway for our juniors and providing a point of community engagement and achievement.

As a senior position within the CBA, our Big V Coaches are required to support and promote the values and inclusion, while building a positive team culture that enables each player to be their best.

Our Big V coaches are required to develop, retain, and recruit players at the required level to be successful in Big V. A particular focus will be on developing genuine pathways for current or past CBA junior players.

Requirements:

- Must hold (or be willing to attain) the relevant coaching accreditation
 - Association level for Senior Big V teams
 - Club level for Youth Big V teams
- Working with Children's Check
- Previous experience coaching at Big V level (or equivalent)

- Organise, advertise and lead tryout sessions in October each year
- Recruit and sign players as necessary in the off-season, outside of tryout sessions
- Select and manage a squad of players within Association guidelines
 - These guidelines include a prescribe minimum number of 5 Collingwood Junior players in the 12-player roster
 - Given that 5 junior players make themselves available for selection at tryout sessions
- Finalise a squad of 15 players by the end of December each year, preparing for the following year's season
 - Made up of 12 on the main roster plus up to 3 development players
- Plan and implement a training program in conjunction with the Assistant Coach(s) and Director of Coaching
- Provide leadership and guidance to players on and off the court
- Manage player issues of both individuals and the group
- Ensure all players have a clearly defined role and responsibility within the team and club
 - Player contracts to define club expectations of players outside of the Big V team environment
- Encourage regular team and player engagement with CBA's junior teams
- Develop strong relationships with CBA's Director of Coaching, Big V Administrator, Head of Girls, other Big V coaches and players, and VJBL coaches and players to ensure the continued success of all CBA pathways
- Attend all professional development opportunities and coaching meetings
- Adhere to the Basketball Victoria and Big V Codes of Conduct and related policies
